Six new Saints - October 14th 2018

It has been announced that Pope Francis will declare Pope Paul VI, Blessed Oscar Romero and four others, saints this Sunday at the Vatican, during the meeting of the World Synod of Bishops.

Blessed Paul VI, was born in Italy in 1897 and died in Castel Gandolfo, in August 1978. He was Pope from 1963 to 1978. He presided over the final sessions of the 2nd Vatican Council and its initial implementation. Speaking in 2013 to a group of pilgrims from Brescia, Italy, Pope Paul's home diocese, Pope Francis said his predecessor had "experienced to the full the Church's travail after the 2nd Vatican Council. He loved the Church and expended himself for her.

Blessed Oscar Romero Archbishop of San Salvador, was born in El Salvador in 1917 and killed in San Salvador on March 24th 1980. He was assassinated while celebrating Mass, one day after calling on the government to end its violation of the human rights of El Salvador's people. Catholics inside and outside El Salvador recognised him as a martyr immediately.

The other men and women to be canonised include Fr. Francesco Spinelli of Italy, founder of the Sisters Adorers of the Blessed Sacrament; Fr. Vincenzo Romano who worked with the poor of Naples, until his death in 1831; Mother Catherine Kasper, German founder of the religious congregation, the Poor Handmaids of Jesus Christ; and Nazaria Ignacia Mesa, the Spanish founder of the Congregation of the Missionary Crusaders of the Church.

Let us Pray:

*We pray to the saints in thanksgiving,
to help us through difficult times in our lives,
and to deepen our faith.*

May these holy women and men be our protectors, inspiration and guides. Amen
